The Chronicle's Weather Report.

Washington, D. C., July 18.—
For Virginia; fair to-morrow, except showers on the coast; stationary temperature, except slightly cooler at Lynchburg; winds becoming north-west; fair Monday. For North Carolina and South Carolina, showers; stationary temperature; northwest winds.

IN THE LOBBIES AND ON THE STREETS.

An excursion will leave Raleigh on August the 12th for Richmond, Va. Bills will be out next week.

Do you drink tea? If so, see what Messrs. W. C. & A. B. Stronach have to say to thee in this issue.

The Secretary of State informs us that the State laws are now being distributed to Judges, Solicitors, and Clerks of the Superior Court. As soon as possible the books will be sent to all entitled to them.

The ladies of the Brooklyn Methodist church, assisted by the ladies of Edenton Street church, will hold a festival Friday evening, July 21. It will be for the benefit of Brooklyn church and will be held in the lawn opposite that building. A full line of refreshments will be served and the best order will prevail. Admission free.

FOLKS WHO TRAVEL.

Dr. M. S. Fowler, of Roanoke, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Henry King went to Oxford yesterday evening.

Mr. W. S. Barnes went to Morehead yesterday.

Mr. A. G. Bauer went down to Wrightsville Tuesday.

Mr. E. M. Ennis, of the CHRONICLE, has gone down to Wrightsville.

Miss Annie Lewis, of Edgecombe county, who has been visiting Raleigh, has returned.

Mr. Josephus Daniels and Master David Bagley went down to Wrightsville yesterday.

Mr. E. Z. Parker, editor of the Southern Farmer, went down to Wrightsville yesterday.

Mrs. Geo. H. Wainwright, who has been visiting relatives here, returned to Wilson yesterday.

Mr. P. W. McGowan, of the CHRONICLE force, leaves to-day for Wilmington and Wrightsville.

Mr. Jas. A. Briggs went down to Columbus county yesterday to see his family who are visiting there.

Rev. F. L. Reid returned yesterday from the Warrenton District Conference at Nashville.

T. T. Hicks, Henderson's ex-mayor, passed through the city yesterday evening.

Mr. W. J. Young has just returned from a two week's stay at Connelly's Springs.

E. C. Hackney, editor of the Durham Recorder, was in town yesterday.

Dr. R. D. Fleming, of Warrenton, passed through Raleigh yesterday.

Mr. E. Lieberman, wife and daughter, Miss Cora, and Mrs. Anson Loeb, of Philadelphia, went down to Wrightsville yesterday.

Prof. W. F. Massey, who spoke at Pulaski City, Va., to the Farmers' Institute, and at the Gardeners' Club at Baltimore on Monday night, has returned home.

Col. John D. Whitford, of Newberry, was in the city yesterday, and he was as full of interesting information as an egg of meat, and interested all who met him.

Mr. Jas. McKimmon went to Morehead yesterday.

Mrs. E. A. White and Miss Emma White returned yesterday from Durham where they have been attending the session of the W. C. T. U.

Mr. W. F. Kornegay, of Goldsboro, President N. C. R. R., and Maj. John W. Graham, attorney of the road, were in Raleigh yesterday to appear before the R. R. Commission in regard to the amount at which the road ought to be listed for taxes.

Rev. W. W. Moore, D. D., and wife (nee Miss Fries) reached the city yesterday. Dr. Moore will preach at the First Presbyterian church to-day. He is one of the ablest and most eloquent divines in the Southern pulpit.

Mr. Alex. Cheek, one of Henderson's most popular young men, who has been here undergoing treatment for overstrained eyes, returned home yesterday evening. We are glad to know that his eyes are much improved, and hope in the near future to hear of his entire recovery.

Change in the Chronicle Force.

Mr. C. J. Betts, who has been foreman of the CHRONICLE office for seven years, has resigned his position on the paper to become one of the proprietors of the Evening Mirror to be established in Raleigh next week. He is a faithful and competent typist; a straightforward and upright gentleman; and while the CHRONICLE regrets to lose him, we hope for him and the new paper a successful career. He deserves all the good things that can come to him.

Mr. Chas. F. Cooke succeeds Mr. Betts as foreman of the CHRONICLE and has for some days shown that he was competent to fill the important position.

Rutherford Military Institute.

Among our new advertisements to-day we present the announcement of this institution. Captain Bell, the Superintendent, is an instructor of wide experience and marked capability. Over one hundred pupils received instruction at this school last session. The school is a cheap and good one.

Masonic.

Hiram Lodge, No. 40, will meet in regular communication Monday evening, July 20th at 8:15 o'clock. Members of sister lodges cordially invited.

E. B. THOMAS, Sec'y.

DR. MOORE TO-DAY.

A High Compliment From a High Source.

Rev. W. W. Moore D. D., preaches at the First Presbyterian church to-day. "G. P. M." writing from the annual Students' Conference of Northfield, Mass., to the Congregationalist last week says:

Of the speakers of former years who have addressed this Conference Prof. W. W. Moore, of Hampden Sidney Theological Seminary, Va., is easily the first in popularity and merit. Only 34 years old, possessing a face and head of classical beauty, a master of the purest English style and blessed with a most graceful presence, simple and logical in his processes of thought, steeped in Biblical lore and burning with an enthusiasm for souls, he is the idol of the Southern delegation and a man of whom the South may well be proud.

Preaching at Soldier's Home.

Dr. Watkins will preach at the Soldier's Home at 5 o'clock to-morrow evening. The public invited to attend.

The Railway Commission.

The Railroad Commission was in session yesterday and heard the representatives of the North Carolina railroad, Messrs. W. F. Kornegay and John W. Graham, in regard to the taxable value of the road.

THE CAPITAL CITY LAND COMPANY ORGANIZED.

The Briggs and Womble Property in North Raleigh Purchased.

CAPITAL OF $30,000.

The Property will be Improved and a Land Sale Arranged for an Early Date.

Raleigh has another Land Company. The Capital City Land Company was organized here yesterday with a capital of thirty thousand dollars. The company has purchased the Briggs and Womble property in North Raleigh and will proceed to develop it. The company is composed of well-known home and foreign real estate projectors and has every prospect of success.

The projectors will have their first land sale in the near future. Raleigh goes up another round in the ladder.

Raleigh is not going to be left behind other towns. Not at all.

The officers of the company are: A. S. Nichols, Michigan City, Ind., President.

J. A. Porter, Asheville, N. C., Vice-President.

J. M. Broughton, Raleigh, N. C., Secretary.

J. F. Jordan, Greensboro, N. C., Treasurer.

DIRECTORS.

J. A. Conant, Toledo, Ohio.

J. A. Porter, Asheville, N. C.

A. S. Nichols, Michigan City, Indiana.

J. F. Jordan, Greensboro, N. C.

J. M. Broughton, Raleigh, N. C.

T. B. Moseley, Raleigh, N. C.

Injunction Continued.

Another hearing in regard to the injunction restraining the Raleigh Company from building their railroad through the property leased to W. H. J. Goodwin by W. G. Upchurch. Judge Whitaker continued the injunction. The Raleigh Company took appeal to the Supreme court.

Special Notices.

Are reaped by agents who sell the popular Dixie Cook Book. Twelve hundred pages of valuable information upon every household subject for $2.75. Apply at once. D. T. HARGROVE, Gen'l Agt., July 10th Charlotte, N. C.

What Will it Be.

It will be the great big glorious Racket store, when completed, which will be in ten days when Swindell will transfer all of his business to "The Norris Dry Goods Store," and then this mammoth store will be the great Big Racket Store. No trash, but the Racket will be low prices for honest goods; and such a tremendous stock as we will keep. We will keep goods to suit all sized pocket-books; but your pocket-book, be it ever so small, will do more execution at this great Big Racket Store than at any other store in this State. Our carpet stock will be as complete as the carpet mills of Europe and America can make it. Our dress goods department will also be unsurpassed by any, and our clothing department will stand without a peer.

We shall continue this slaughter sale at The Racket Store also at The Norris Store 10 days longer.

Respectfully,
D. T. SWINDELL.

Embroidered Skirting.

A full line beginning at 50c. per yard. At $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75 and $2.00 are styles and qualities, better than have ever been offered in Raleigh at these prices.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

Ladies' Russet Oxforas.

Monday, July 20th, we will offer for sale a line of ladies' tan and russet oxford ties. These goods are of the well known makes, Lord, Schober & Mitchell, and Ziegler Bros.

They are worth and sold for $2.50 and $3.00, but to close the line we will offer at $1.50 per pair for your choice.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

Gentlemen's Vacation Slippers.

Gentlemen who expect to make a trip this season, no matter where, should not fail to examine our line of summer furnishings. Every thing necessary for use at the mountains, sea-shore or while traveling.

Russet oxford ties, patent leather shoes, dancing pumps, tennis coats, sashes, and belts, trunks, bags and grips.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

Puff Bosom and Negligee Shirts.

During this week we will offer at reduced prices, gent's puff bosom and negligee shirts. These represent the very best styles shown by us this season, and the prices they are now offered at place them as unusual values, and our gentlemen friends should at once take advantage of this opportunity.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

Quilts.

Just as one enters the Fayetteville street door, may be seen a counter piled high with white bed spreads. These have been on sale one week, and during that time we have done so well that we have decided to continue the sale a little longer.

In this lot are Marseilles, crocheted, and crib quilts. The prices are such that almost every one who looks buys one—some buy more. The grade at $1.50 is superior to any ever shown in Raleigh for the money.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO.

Special Curtain Sale.

One week ago we began a special sale of passed patterns and short lengths of carpets. We have now added to this carpet sale a line of chenille curtains and portieres and lace curtains. The curtains we have taken from the regular stock upstairs and all may now be seen just as you enter the Wilmington street door.

This line of curtains is made up of patterns that cannot be duplicated, and the odd pairs which have accumulated during the season just passed. While they are in perfect order, yet to close the line, we have marked them at prices far below their real value.

MID-SUMMER DRY GOODS.

Some of the greatest bargains we ever offered during the Summer months—between seasons—when stocks are being cleaned out, when preparations are being made for Fall work, then is a good time to shop.

We wish now to remind our patrons that in all of our 41 departments are lines of goods which we intend to sell before the Fall stock arrives.
